

Week at a Glance

Week of September 14, 2015

Good Evening Families,

I hope everyone received the link for Parent-Teacher conferences. If you haven't yet registered, please click here to go to SignupGenius and reserve your spot today.

Below you will find our Week-at-a-Glance. This is a snapshot of what we have planned for the week.

REMINDER: Back to School Night is this Thursday, September 17. Grades K – 2 will meet from 6:00PM to 7:00PM, and grades 3 – 5 will meet from 7:15PM to 8:15PM.

I look forward to seeing you Thursday!

Mrs. Longest

Reading

We will be reading to identify the setting drawing on specific details from the text. Students will also identify theme using evidence from the text.

Math

Students will continue working on reading and writing multi-digit numbers and expanded form. At the end of the week we will begin working on comparing numbers using $>$, $<$, or $=$ to record the comparison.

Writing

We are in the last stage of writing our opinion piece on learning styles. Once final drafts are completed, students will make dolls that resemble themselves.

Words Their Way

Students have a list of words to sort and complete different activities. Six activities will be due on Friday. If you have any questions, please encourage your child to see me.

Science

We will begin building our ecosystems in preparation for our fish, who will be delivered this week.
